Why take the DELF? (Diploma of French language studies)

The DELF is an official French language qualification which certifies the level of French of foreign candidates. It is issued by the French Ministry of Education through the CIEP and it is valid indefinitely. The DELF B1 et B2 certificates are recognised for an application for French citizenship.

 The DELF B2 provides a qualification recognised in the application procedure for admission to French universities and as the prerequisite language level for various professions in many countries. However, certain sectors are only accessible to foreigners at C1 level (Law studies for example) we strongly advise you to verify the level required for the course you want to do in France.
